TYPELINE

“A church separate and distinct from the world is in the estimation of heaven the object of greatest value in all the world. The members are pledged to consecrate their service to one Master, Jesus Christ. They are to show that they have chosen Christ as their Leader. In the Scriptures the members of the church of God are represented as striving, laboring, working, fighting the good fight of faith, and praying in faith, ever ready to unsheathe the sword of the Spirit” (“Be Strong in the Lord,” Signs of the Times, July 11, 1900).

Today—Golf Tournament Deadline!

Yes, the deadline is today, May 31, to get your name in to participate in the 2007 Review and Herald Keith Alexander Memorial Golf Tournament. The tournament is scheduled for Friday, June 8, and will begin at 8:30 a.m. at the Black Rock Golf Course in Hagerstown. Participants are asked to arrive at 8:00 a.m. to pay the fees and to find your cart and group. Forty dollars covers your green fees and cart, and lunch is provided by the Review and Herald. Lunch, including awards and prize drawings will be in the clubhouse immediately after the tournament ends.

Enjoy a great round of golf with coworkers and meet new friends, too. Contact Dale Tooley at ext. 5270 to reserve your spot or to get more information.

Power Out on Friday, June 1

Allegheny Power will be working on our substation on Friday, June 1, 2007, and the power will be off in the building from 7:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Please plan accordingly and turn off all electrical equipment, including computers, printers, monitors, etc. Questions may be directed to Plant Services or the ISS Help Desk.

Week of Spiritual Emphasis

Pastor John Nixon spoke for our Week of Spiritual Emphasis during the week of May 21 to 24. His topic was “Making Jesus Lord,” and we appreciated Nixon’s messages. What a blessing to begin each day with a reminder to make Jesus the Lord of our lives.

Pastor Nixon is senior pastor of the Collegedale SDA Church in Collegedale, Tennessee. He and his wife, Januwoina (pronounced Ja-von-na), spent some time here several mornings walking through the plant and visiting with many of us at our work stations.

Connie Kline wrote this note to Brenda Page, a coordinator for Partners in Prayer: “I wanted to tell you how much I enjoyed our speaker this week, Elder Nixon. His voice was just so easy to listen to, and I got the distinct impression that here was a man who was not trying to impress in any way—just speaking what he really believes and what is in his heart. His messages were soooo good!”

The Partners in Prayer group hope you were blessed by the messages too. We hope to bring spiritual encouragement to fellow employees in many ways during the year. Members of this group are Brenda Page, Washington Johnson, Bill Kirstein, and Iris Shull.

New Product Highlights

Title: If I Were the Devil

Author: Knight, George

George Knight tackles tough questions in this shining collection of articles, speeches, and papers. Including the courageous speech "If I Were the Devil," presented at the 2000 General Conference session, this book is an insightful look at Adventism's mission, structure, and contemporary challenges.

Title: Could It Be This Simple?

Author: Jennings, Timothy

There are many options when facing mental problems. Could It Be This Simple? presents a scientific and biblical approach to true mental healing while keeping the Christian perspective in the forefront.

Local Concerts and Events

PromisedLand Quartet: "You ain't heard nothin' yet" if you haven't heard the PromisedLand Quartet sing. Don't miss them on June 2 at 7:30 p.m. right here at Willow Brook. Here's what people are saying about them: "Beyond their singing is the quality of their lives. These men exude Christian values and love for Jesus. . . . If you enjoy Southern Gospel singing, you will love the PromisedLand Quartet!" —Don Driver, Senior Pastor, Beltsville Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"These fellows live what they sing, and it shows on stage." —Jack Welch, Senior Pastor of Willow Grove Church of God.

"We have had a lot of gospel groups come in, but none compare to the PromisedLand Quartet. They're simply the best we've ever had." —V. G. Porter, Pastor of Second Community Baptist, Newport News, VA.

Cain in Concert: An organ concert featuring the music artistry of teen organist Jermaine Cain will be presented Sabbath, June 2, at 7:00 p.m. Jermaine will be assisted by Valerie Simon-Phillips and David Loy. Come and celebrate the heaven-borne gifts of music by these treasured friends. For more information, call 301-733-4411.

Taste of Africa Benefit Dinner: There are more than 200 orphans in Alendu, Kenya, whose parents have died of HIV/AIDS. If they're lucky, these children get one small meal a day. And only twenty U.S. dollars could feed one of these little ones for a month! You can help by attending a Taste of Africa Benefit Dinner on Sunday, June 3, at 6:30 p.m. at Highland View Seventh-day Adventist Church. A minimum donation for a family of four

Many Thanks

"Many thanks for the cards, calls, flowers, and prayers that have sustained our families through the loss of Dorothy Singer. It has been so comforting to open and read the many cards and know that we have been in your thoughts and prayers during these past several weeks! Every day is one day closer to our Lord's coming! We, along with you, are looking forward to that wonderful day when there will be no more sickness, death or sorrow."

"Richard Singer and family, Judi Seeders and family"

or more is $30. Tickets for children age 3 and under are free. Tickets for children ages 4 to 12 cost $5. All other tickets are $10. Reserve your tickets at www.fullylive.com by clicking on the Taste of Africa "GO" ticket. The church is located at 21600 Academy Terrace, Hagerstown, MD 21740.

Brazilians for Africa Concert: The Brazilian Youth Choir of Washington, D.C., will perform at Highland View Seventh-day Adventist Church on Sabbath, June 9, at 7:30 p.m. This choir has joined the hundreds of others across our nation in the effort to alleviate the suffering and hunger of more than 200 orphans in Alendu, Kenya. You can help the orphans by inviting others to this concert and by planning now to give a generous love offering at the concert. Contact Joelle Ashley at 301-991-4152 or visit www.fullylive.com for directions.

String Concert: Takoma Park SDA Church presents the Loma Linda Academy Consort in concert on Sabbath, June 9, 2007, at 3:30 p.m. The Consort is the string orchestra of Loma Linda Academy and entertains audiences with a variety of music. Group members range in age from 10 to 18 years of age. Call 202-829-4800 or see www.takomaparksda.org for more information.

The King's Heralds Quartet: This outstanding professional group of musicians will present an evening concert at the Hagerstown SDA Church on Wednesday, June 20, at 7:30 p.m. This is the first Wednesday following our Chesapeake camp meeting. Please mark your calendar now and line up a friend to bring along with you.
